

Examples of Open-Ended Questions

These are a few open-ended questions from Spotlight on Encouraging Engagement (1.5)

What do you think happened?

How hard did you find it?

What do you know now that you didn't know before?

What would you do differently?

What are your next steps?

How is your relationship with your group?

Is there someone who you find helpful?

Is there someone you helped?

What did your group do well together?

What have you done to overcome any challenges you met?

Does this activity interest you?