NOMINATION AND APPROVAL PROCEDURES

- FOUR individuals or groups familiar with the service performed by the nominee each complete a THANKS BADGE - NOMINATION FORM or a letter including all requested information and submit them to Girl Scouts of Western Washington Adult Recognition Committee by January 15. Nominators will receive an acknowledgement of receipt.
- The Adult Recognition Committee will only review applications that contain four complete nominations, all of which have been received on time.
- All nominators will be notified of the committee results, and successful nominees will be informed that they will receive an award at the Adult Recognition Event.

CRITERIA INCLUDE:

- Outstanding service to all Girl Scouts of Western Washington and/or the entire Girl Scout organization
- Service so significantly above and beyond the call of duty that no other award would be appropriate

EXAMPLES OF POSSIBLE CANDIDATES for the THANKS BADGE might include, but are not limited to:

- An administrative volunteer who manages the total adult training function within the council at a consistently high level
- An individual who, over a period of time, supervises a council wide encampment or wider opportunity resulting in membership retention and continuous delivery of Girl Scout program
- An individual who initiates and successfully manages the extension of Girl Scouting to underserved populations within Girl Scouts of Western Washington jurisdiction, such as ethnic groups previously underserved, girls with disabilities, etc
- An individual who carries a policy decision-making role at the local and national levels at a consistently high level
- An individual who contributes significantly to the total Girl Scout organization in the delivery of Girl Scout program on an operational level

The THANKS BADGE (a GSUSA award) is a large, gold-filled enamel medallion on a grosgrain ribbon pin.
