Camp is the perfect place to explore nature with those close to you. Come and spend a day, a weekend, or even longer. Enjoy your time outdoors, hike one of our nature trails, and sing around a campfire.

Camp River Ranch is available through September 12 and will then be unavailable for the remainder of 2021 to address critical maintenance projects. At Camp River Ranch you can also sign up for archery, boating, swimming, climbing, and self-led activity kits!

Camp Lyle McLeod is available through September 2 and will reopen for use on October 1.

Available Camp Properties

Camp Lyle McLeod
Located on 160 acres of pine, hemlock and fir forest, this site encircles Lake Bennettsen and includes a beautiful 1.5-mile trail around the lake.

Camp River Ranch
Nestled in a rainforest in the foothills of the Cascade Mountains, this 435-acre site encircles the spring-fed Lake Langlois and borders the Tolt River.

4. One you are viewing your selected Camp location, use the drop-down menus to view the Availability Calendar, reviewing pricing and check out the Frequently Asked Questions.
