

Money-Earning refers to activities brainstormed, organized and carried out by Brownie through Ambassador Girl Scouts - with guidance from their supporting adults - that earn money for participation in Girl Scout activities. Both girls and their supporting adults preparing for a money-earning activity should review the following documents prior to submitting the Money-Earning Activity Application:

- All standard Money-Earning Activity Guidelines
- Girl Scouts of Western Washington's Social Media Guidelines
- Computer/Online Use: Safety Activity Checkpoints
- Girls read and sign the Internet Safety Pledge

The following questions should be answered yes before submitting application for approval:

- Is money being earned for Girl Scout mission use?
- Have girls completed the Money-Earning Group Agreement?
- Have girls participated in at least one product program (cookie or fall product) in the last 12 months?
- Have families given permission for girls to participate?
- Are all city/county/state laws and ordinances being followed?
- Is the activity safe for girls?
- Is the activity scheduled outside of the cookie program dates?
- Is the activity age appropriate?
- Are the girls Brownie level or older?
- Will the application be submitted 4 weeks prior to advertising the activity?
- Will advertising materials be included with the application?
- Is additional insurance needed?
- Have girls read the Media and Brand Guidelines?
- Does the troop have a bank account?

If the answer is yes to any of the following questions, the activity may not be approved.

- Is this a game of chance?
- Is the troop/group soliciting cash without providing a service or product?
- Is this a product demonstration or endorsement?
- Is the troop/group re-selling a branded product (i.e. Avon, Pampered Chef, Restaurant Gift Cards, etc.)?
- Is the good or service associated with a political fundraiser?
- Is this fundraising for another organization or endorsing another organization?
- Does the activity take place at an adult establishment such as a bar, marijuana dispensaries, liquor store, gun show or casino?
