

Goal Flower Garden

This Daisy level cookie goal activity can be adapted for other goal setting situations with younger girl scouts. Introducing some activity options ahead of goal setting so they know what is possible may be necessary with our youngest girl scouts.

1. Use a poster board or a tri-fold display and cut out three stems and leaves to attach to the board.
2. Explain to the Daisies that by selling cookies, their troop can earn money to help others and to do fun things. By setting a sales goal, they can make sure they earn enough money to do the things they want to do.
3. Let them know that they will be writing three different goals. First, will be a service goal or one where girls can “help others”. The second goal will be related to a fun activity. The third goal will be how many packages that they would like to sell.
4. Pass out three petals to each. They can write their three goals on the petals. Invite them to color and decorate their petal goals and then tape them to the corresponding flower.
5. Ask the girls to share their goals and as a group decide what the troop’s goal will be for each flower. Write the goal in the center circle. (For sales goal, add up all of the girl’s cookie package goals.
6. Bring the tri-fold or poster to each meeting during the Girl Scout Cookie sale to remind the girls of their goals.
